Evacuate Fort in Volhynian Region, Says Embassy Report in Rome

RUSSIANS CONTINUE DRIVE IN EAST

Several Brigades Reported Captured With Fort

LUTZOW WAS DESTROYED

Official Statement From Berlin Confirms Destruction of Battle Cruiser in Jutland Fight—Germany Now Admits Loss of 11 Vessels and British 14—French Lose Fort Vaux.

Loss of the 26,000-ton battle cruiser Lutzow, one of the big German warships which the British claimed to have sunk in the Jutland sea fight last week, is now admitted by the German admiralty, as is the loss of the Rostock, a cruiser of 4,900 tons. The admitted German losses now comprise besides the Lutzow and Rostock, the battleship Pommern, the cruisers Wiesbaden, Elbing and Frauenlob and five torpedo craft.

The British have admitted the loss of the battle cruiser Queen Mary, indefatigable and invincible; the armored cruisers Warrior, Black Prince and Defence, and eight torpedo boat destroyers. They have also admitted that the battleship Marlborough was torpedoed but declared she was towed to port.

Damage to the dreadnaught Warship, which the Germans claim to have sunk has also been conceded.

Paris admits the loss of Ft. Vaux, northeast of Verdun, capture of which Berlin announced in yesterday's official statement. The French still hold the outskirts of the fort and trenches on both sides of it. The fort was abandoned, says the French bulletin, after an incessant bombardment for seven days had reduced it to ruins.

AUSTRIANS EVACUATE FORT LUTSK

London, June 8, 3:08 p. m.—The Austrians have evacuated Lutsk, one of the Volhynian triangle fortresses, according to information received at the Russian embassy in Rome, says a Central News dispatch from that city.

Several brigades of Austrians are reported in the advances to have been captured with the fortress.

It is stated that the Austrian lines have been broken in Volhynian and that they have been withdrawn nearly 20 miles throughout the Lutsk sector.

ROOSEVELT WILL SPEAK IF INVITED

ISSUES STATEMENT SAYING HE WOULD VISIT CONVENTION IF IT WANTS SPEECH

Hopes Two Parties Will Nominate Man Who Will Place Country Where it Belongs

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 8.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will come to Chicago if "the Republican convention desires me to address it." This he announced today in a reply made to the invitation he received last night from Senator William B. Jackson of Maryland, asking him to come to Chicago.

The colonel declared in his answer that he hoped the Republicans and Progressives would nominate a man who, if elected would place this nation where it belongs by making it true to itself and therefore to all mankind.

President Wilson, he said, had "rendered to this people the most evil service that can be rendered to a great democracy."

Colonel Roosevelt declared that the differences that have divided not merely Republicans and Progressives but good Americans of all shades of political belief, sink into nothing when compared with the issues now demanding decision—the issues of unified Americanism and national preparedness.

He further declared that in "the face of the awful world cataclysm this nation has stood supine and helpless" and that no excuse now made by those responsible for this inaction is entitled to serious consideration. "It is for you and your associates to show the people that they have a worthy alternative to which to turn."

"Can we not," he asks, "unforgetting past differences, now join for the safety and honor of our country, to enforce the policy of genuine Americanism and genuine preparedness?"

WILL BE SECRETARY OF ST. LOUIS MEET

J. Bruce Kremer, national committeeman from Montana, will be temporary secretary of the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

UNCLE SAM MAY OFFER ARBITRATION

WASHINGTON DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES INTERESTED IN THE SUGGESTION.

Question Included Withdrawal of Troops, Indemnity for Loss of Life and Vera Cruz Incident.

Washington, June 8.—Arbitration of differences between the United States and Mexico through an international commission today became a possibility.

Diplomats, particularly those of Central and South American republics, were much interested in information that administration officials are considering seriously proposing such a course to General Carranza. If they definitely decide to suggest this, it would be sent as the United States answer to Carranza's last note. Acceptance would then depend upon the de facto government.

Under the treaty of 1848 between the United States and Mexico the presidents of the two nations might appoint an equal number of commissioners, to whom could be submitted all the vexatious questions arising out of relations between the two countries during the past few years.

Among these might be: Withdrawal of American troops from Mexican territory.

Indemnification for American lives lost and property destroyed or damaged during recent Mexican revolutions.

Disposition of customs revenues collected during the American occupation of Vera Cruz, and now held in the United States; and claims for proper damages growing out of the Vera Cruz incident.

Long-pending disputes concerning the exact location of certain portions of the international boundary.

The commission probably would meet in some South American country.

Whether President Wilson had reached a final decision on the question of proposing arbitration to General Carranza was not indicated today.

The treaty of 1848 provides that "should such a course be proposed by either party, it shall be accepted to by the other unless deemed by it altogether incompatible with the nature of the difference or the circumstances of the case."

Interest in the suggested plan here today was based largely on the belief that it would tend to benefit relations between the United States and South American nations.

5,000 POTTERS RESUME WORK AT E. LIVERPOOL

East Liverpool, O., June 8.—Five thousand potters returned to work in the tableware potteries here and in the West Virginia towns across the Ohio river today when the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters refused to recognize the strike of 300 kiln drawers which was called several weeks ago. The manufacturing potters are members of the United States Potters' Association, and held that their wage agreement was with the national body and not with any of its subordinate unions. This view was sustained by the brotherhood whose wage agreement with the Potters' association does not expire until October 1, 1917.

BODIES RECOVERED.
Elyria, O., June 8.—The bodies of Frank and Michael Zelenak, 15 and 11, drowned in Black river, were recovered last night.

U. S. TROOPS

May Proceed to Peking, Says Tien Tsin Cable to London

FRENCH ALREADY HAVE MOVED

Expect Disturbance After Ruler's Death

FORCE OF 1200 READY

Washington Claims to Have No Advices But Says Col. Hale Would Move In Emergency Without Instructions—Officers of President's Bodyguard Remain Loyal.

London, June 8.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tien Tsin, China, says that the United States troops at that place have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to proceed to Peking.

The dispatch also says the French authorities already have dispatched a strong force of native troops from the French protectorate at Annam to Peking. A delegation of officers of the bodyguard of the new president, Li Yuan Hung has assured him of the fealty of the guard.

The reports of movements of foreign troops in China indicate apprehension of disturbances following the death of Yuan Shi Kai. Direct dispatches from China and Japan, have given the impression that notwithstanding the unsettled conditions of the last few months no serious disorders were expected. In fact, it was felt that the death of the president would have the result of ending the revolution.

Tien Tsin is a treaty port about seventy miles southeast of Peking. There is a small American force in Tien Tsin to guard the legation. There is also a small force in Peking.

WASHINGTON NOT ALARMED

Washington, June 8.—Twelve hundred men of the fifteenth infantry under Colonel Harry C. Hale, are stationed in Tien Tsin and along the railroad between there and Peking and a legion guard of 230 marines constitute the American military force in China. It was said at the war department Colonel Hale might take any part of this force to Peking in an emergency, without instruction. He probably intended to act as soon as he heard of President Yuan Shi Kai's death.

State department advices from Peking have indicated a remarkably quiet state of the Chinese republic.

ORPET JURY COMPLETED; 1200 CALLED

PROSECUTION DEFENDS UPON CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE TO CONVICT STUDENT.

Letters From Orpet to Marion Lambert Hint at Relations Between the Young People.

Waukegan, Ill., June 8.—With the jury finally completed after the examination of more than 1,200 men in sixteen venues, the actual trial of W. H. Orpet, the University student charged with the murder last February of his former sweetheart, Marion Lambert, was begun today.

David R. Joslyn, assistant to the state's attorney, was prepared when court opened, to outline the case of the prosecution and tell what the state hopes to prove.

It is understood the defense will reserve its opening statement until after the evidence for the prosecution has all been presented.

The state's case will rest chiefly on circumstantial evidence, and it was along a line of questioning on this point that many of the veniremen were excused from jury service, the state asking each man if he would favor the infliction of the death penalty on circumstantial evidence only. Letters from Orpet to the girl will be introduced as evidence by the state and are expected to form an important part of the prosecution's case. A number of the letters made public today were written by Orpet while he was at the University in Madison, Wis. Most of the letters are but those of a schoolboy to his sweetheart but in some of them is a hint at the relations of the two and the possibility of the delicate condition of the girl.

Leland Stevenson, who is employed in Akron is spending a few days at his home in Newark.

TEDDY JR. AND FATHER'S MANAGER WORK FOR COLONEL'S NOMINATION AT CHICAGO

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and George von L. Meyer.

Teddy Roosevelt, Jr., is not a delegate to the Republican national convention, but he is in Chicago to do what he can for his father. George von L. Meyer, member of the Roosevelt and Taft cabinets, is one of the Roosevelt managers at the convention.

Know the Men of Newark? They are the men who are the backbone of the city. They are the men who are the backbone of the city. They are the men who are the backbone of the city.

DO YOU THINK IT WILL RAIN? IT'S A HABIT

There was quite a heavy wind and rain storm at noon today. At that hour the sky suddenly became clouded, sharp claps of thunder resounded and in a short time the rain came down in a great deluge. A great deal of wind accompanied the rain in the northwest part of the city. Limbs were blown from trees, especially large limbs of a tree in West Locust street crashing through the fence. Quite a little garden was also damaged by the wind.

Many Newarkites are wondering if the wet weather of 1915 will repeat itself in 1916. It looks very much as though it would. The rain fell for May and the first eight days of June this year exceeds that of the same period last year. The first eight days of June last year had rain every day. The rains this year have been heavy, much more so than last year.

Last night the thermometer registered at 46 at midnight and people got out their comforts, it being cold and disagreeable where windows were left open. At 8 o'clock this morning it registered 70 degrees, a difference in temperature of 24 degrees in less than six hours. A year ago this coming Saturday light frost was reported in various sections of Licking County.

EUGENIC DISCOVERY ANNOUNCED BY DR. L. D. ROGERS

In the current number of "Ideal Life," a bright and interesting little magazine devoted to mothers' and children's welfare and ideal life education, appears an article referring to Dr. L. D. Rogers who formerly lived in Licking county. On May 12, 1916, Dr. Rogers who is a well known Chicago physician, read a paper before the Chicago Society of Medical Research. The title of the paper was "Auto-homic Therapy." He reported to the society the results of his six years of observation "treating patients with a serum made from their own blood as a base." He treated all classes of patients whose troubles were likely due to genital weakness. His results in fact were remarkable.

The society was so favorably impressed with Dr. Rogers' report that it unanimously appointed a committee to assist him in testing out this treatment upon a large number of patients.

Dissection

can convention finished its deliberations at 1:30 o'clock this morning. Committees pressed forward with their program, trying to get ready with reports when the convention adjourned. While discussions of possible peace and fusion of the two parties assumed a more concrete trend, and the rumor became persistent that Colonel Roosevelt might come to Chicago and appear before both conventions in the role of pacificator. Republican leaders discussed the proposal to invite Roosevelt to Chicago and decided, it was said, that if Roosevelt is prepared to decline nomination and enter into an at the Republican convention, the invitation will be forthcoming.

Contrary to this view, leading Progressives declared that Colonel Roosevelt would be nominated by the Progressive convention regardless of what was done at the Col. Republican party leaders. William Allen White of Kansas, insisted that Roosevelt would be nominated before midnight tonight and that Governor Johnson of California would be nominated tomorrow.

But the peace plan discussion involved Progressives in considerable numbers today. The word went out that a peace conference between responsible leaders of both parties might be held before tonight. The conference would take up the suggestion that the Republican and Progressive convention name committees to meet and attempt to reach an agreement as to a joint candidate and joint platform.

Yesterday in this matter, Delmonico said was due to lack of authority in the rules adopted for the temporary organization of the convention. Authority is forthcoming, however, it was said, in the new rules.

From Progressive quarters came reports that certain western Progressive delegates were solidly against any plans for fusion and peace. It was said that North Dakota and other Progressive state delegations desired a third party above all else, and would do everything possible to prevent entering into a coalition of any sort of peace pact. These state delegations, it was reported, were sufficient in numbers to block efforts of George W. Perkins and other Progressive leaders from entering into an agreement with the Republicans.

If this situation is correct, it means in all probability that the Progressive convention will go on and complete its work regardless of what the leaders may suggest or oppose, and that Colonel Roosevelt will be invited to appear before the convention. There have occurred several personal clashes among delegates in the lobby of the Congress hotel. Sherman adherents and Roosevelt followers engaged in a free-for-all fight and scramble that involved several score men. Police experienced difficulty in restoring order and several persons were slightly injured.

As the day progressed, it became more apparent that there would be two rival chairmen of the convention. Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive national committee, summed up the whole situation when he said today:

"Well, we left the door open, and the Republicans don't seem to be coming in."

That was the progressive leader's reply to inquiries as to whether there remained any prospect for harmony.

Women Storm Emperor's Castle Demanding Peace

London, June 8.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company says that peace demonstrators, most of whom were women, marched from Vienna Monday evening to Schoenbrunn castle, the residence of the emperor and demanded a separate peace with Russia.

A number of the women managed to avoid the police and entered the castle grounds where they shouted their demands beneath the windows of the emperor's apartments. They were arrested and the castle guard was later equipped with machine guns.

Headaches Every Morning, Can't Eat Much Breakfast, Liver Not Acting?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water will Make Your Liver Act Freely In Half An Hour

Morning headaches come from a clogged liver. The bile tubes get choked and force the bile back into the blood. The blood takes the bile and the whole system becomes poisoned, the appetite becomes poor, especially at breakfast.

Get a 15-cent bottle of Tollo Water from the drug store and take about a third of a tumbler full in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In about thirty minutes it will start the liver acting freely, your headache will be relieved at once, because it flushes out the bile, really bathes the liver, leaving it clean and fresh. Then you can eat breakfast and enjoy it and there won't be any gas or discomfort afterwards.

Concentrated Tollo Water comes from Dawson Springs. It does not act by irritation, like calomel and other drugs, but by dissolving the obstruction and bathing the liver as nature requires. To remove the bile that has been absorbed into the blood you should take a wineglassful every morning for several days. It will clear up the skin, pimples and allow you to see the color of your natural, healthy color will return. Then an occasional glass before breakfast or at any time on an empty stomach will keep your liver clean and your appetite good.

MESSANGER IS KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE

Ivan Blair, 14, a messenger boy at the Western Union, had a narrow escape from serious injury today when his bicycle collided with the big touring car of J. D. Montgomery at the corner of Hudson avenue and Church streets.

Mr. Montgomery was turning the corner from West Church street to go to the square when Ivan Blair cut across his path. The boy at the time was looking backward and of course did not see the auto turn the corner. He was knocked down but with great agility rolled away from the auto, the latter running over the bicycle, which was almost twisted out of shape. The youngster was not hurt in the least but was badly frightened.

ON TO COLUMBUS

Join in the Big Parade to Secure the U. C. T. Convention for Newark in 1917.

The publicity and convention bureau of the Chamber of Commerce is working hard to secure autos for the trip to Columbus which will leave Newark tomorrow at noon to make an effort to secure the U. C. T. convention for Newark in 1917.

A general invitation is extended to every auto owner to join in the trip and to take their lady friends with them. It has been impossible for the committee to see all the auto owners and they ask that every one who possibly can go on the trip to join and make a big showing.

The trip will start from West Main street where they are requested to meet and will proceed to Columbus where they will be met at the Great Southern hotel by the local U. C. T. with the Buckeye band and they will then go to Orlinburg park where the convention will spend the afternoon. The rate of speed at which the autos will go has been set at 20 miles an hour. This will get the party to Columbus in good time.

Auto owners may decorate their cars with flags and banners are being printed and may be secured at the American-Tribune Friday morning.

A committee of the local U. C. T. consisting of Bert Crawford, J. M. Black, Geo. Roley, Geo. Vail, J. F. Cherry, E. P. Roberts were in Columbus yesterday putting up banners and other advertising matter and returned today accompanied by Dan Alsapach when they will complete their work.

Newark wants this convention and much will depend upon the showing Newark makes in the big parade tomorrow. So now is our opportunity to act. Get your machine out and help us win.

There are a number of classy horses at the track and the Newark men will endeavor to secure a number of entries for the stake races, four in all, the purses of which are $1,000 each. The entries for the Licking races close Saturday at midnight and Secretary Dudgeon predicts that there will be a field of horses the equal of which has never been seen on the local track.

HUDSON AVENUE OPEN TO TRAFFIC TO NORTH STREET

Residents of Hudson avenue between Locust and North streets, today were celebrating the opening of Hudson avenue for traffic between the above named streets. The street has been closed for the past several weeks, being resurfaced, diverting traffic over Elmwood avenue and Fourth streets.

The work of re-surfacing Hudson avenue north from North street to Charles is now well under way and with good weather prevailing, the contractors of the Federal Asphalt company expect to have the street completed by the latter part of this week. This portion of the street will in all probabilities be opened for traffic the first part of next week.

GERMAN REPORT ADMITS LOSS OF CRUISER LUTZOW

London, June 8.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that a German official statement says that the loss of the cruisers Lutzow and Rostock in the battle of Jutland was withheld for military reasons. Both ships are said to have sunk while on their way to a harbor for repairs.

This is the first mention of the loss of the cruiser Rostock. The Rostock was a small warship of 4,000 tons and was built in 1912. She carried 273 men and was armed with 12 four-inch guns and two torpedo tubes. The Lutzow was a 26,000-ton dreadnaught battle cruiser. Her destruction has previously been claimed by British naval officers.

An Old Green Lane of Summer

No trip this year to Europe and no time, perhaps, to enjoy the old lane on the continent to San Francisco bay. No Canada or Mexico, no strange lands of Paris. But there's one thing everybody has the time and chance to do.

An old green lane of summer down some Maryland vale of cheer. Or the valley of Virginia, where the dreams of life are dear!

An old green lane of summer in our own sweet Maryland. All who shall ever travel in its magic shall be born.

On the wings of tender beauty further than a foreign strand— Shall be carried back to childhood and to childhood's dewy dawn; And the lips shall make a music and the flowers shall scent the air With a loveliness of summer that will drive away your care!

No trip this year to Europe, but a green lane free to all. Where the orchards and the meadows and the ivy covered wall Of some quaint old Maryland homestead beckon back again to days That are sweet with summer beauty in the quiet country ways; An old green lane of summer, where the green boughs clear your mood And a bob white's calling softly from a field of waving wheat.

FRANCE ALREADY PLANS TO REBUILD WRECKED CITIES

Teaching Men How to Repair Damages Wrought by War.

"The Reconstructed City" is the name of the world's exposition being held in Paris, and back of this exposition is a story showing that with all Germany's wonderful efficiency the French are showing an equal amount of foresight. "The Reconstructed City" is a French national exposition to teach, even at this early date, how to rebuild the war wrecked portions of France when the war is ended. That the French government is already planning on an entire reconstruction of the cities destroyed by the movements of armies back and forth across the northern provinces is evidence of foresight of an unusual type.

It is to be a French exposition entirely, and America's part has been only the sending by lumber manufacturers of an exhibit showing the possibilities of American timber in this work of reconstruction.

"The Reconstructed City" is in several sections, different parts of the exposition being devoted to such departments as road building, city planning, city residence construction, city industrial buildings and rural work. In some cases the city planning department will work for an entire reconstruction on entirely new lines of the cities which have been wrecked by bombardment. In other cases only building construction along the old streets will be required. The road work will be important also, for shells have raised havoc with the famous highways of northern France. Ruined farms will be no small part of the problem of reconstruction.

One lumber association, through its European agent, learned of the projected exposition and was able to get an exhibit not only of southern building types, but of typical American structural work, on the last ship leaving New Orleans before the exposition. The American lumbermen have a series of models of buildings for city and farm, including a small mill construction building for industrial purposes and models particularly of farm buildings, such as an ideal barn, swine house, poultry house and granary. Photographs of groups of these buildings are included, and the balance of the exhibit is made up of samples of southern pine in various stages from the original timber to the finished lumber. One of the unique features of the exhibit will be a relief plan of an ideal farm, with model buildings worked in, and a landscape effect with hills in relief, streams and roads.

WAIT ON MAPS TO CHANGE.

School Won't Buy Geographies Because Soon They'll Be Obsolete.

"Buy geographies with the maps in them as printed now? What's the use when the future will see the major part of Europe stamped Germany, and the books purchased now will have to go to the scrap heap?"

That's what Trustee Hensel of the West Hoboken (N. J.) board of education said at a recent board meeting. Trustee Charles Reuh agreed with Hensel, and the others joined in voting down the resolution for the purchase of the books, deciding to wait to see what the Kaiser would accomplish.

Suffragists Face Problem.

Because delegates to the Republican national convention have reserved all available hotel rooms in Chicago for the period of the convention in June, woman suffragists, who will hold a convention there at the same time, may have to charter lake steamers to provide sleeping places.

It isn't necessary for a man to be constantly yawning in order to have an open position.

Men of Newark

"I know the Helsey Table Glass is the finest in the world."

Captain A. H. Helsey whose "Diamond H" table glassware is known the world over, has done a great deal for the advancement and the growth of Newark. As the head of the Helsey glass factory and as a pioneer in the natural gas and oil operations of this community, he has contributed to the development and prosperity of the city. As president of the Newark Trust Company he has been conspicuous in the financial affairs of the city. As chairman of the general committee which directed the campaign for construction of the new City Hospital he gave freely not only of his time but liberally of his money. For many years he has been very generous in charitable and philanthropic work. He was an Ohio leader in the Belgian relief campaign and in fact can be found upon the right side of every proposition. The Captain is an ardent Republican, but as he is still young and active, many of his Democratic friends have hope that he will yet "see the light."

EUGENIC DISCOVERY ANNOUNCED BY DR. L. D. ROGERS

In the current number of "Ideal Life," a bright and interesting little magazine devoted to mothers' and children's welfare and ideal life extension, appears an article referring to Dr. L. D. Rogers who formerly lived in Licking county. On May 12, 1916, Dr. Rogers who is a well known Chicago physician, read a paper before the Chicago Society of Medical Research. The title of the paper was "Auto-hemic Therapy." He reported to the society the results of his six years of observations "treating patients with a serum made with their own blood as a base." He treated all classes of patients whose troubles were likely due to faulty blood. His results in general were remarkable.

The results he obtained from using this serum upon mothers sounded like a fairy tale. The babies born of mothers who received the treatment several months before their birth were uniformly stronger and brighter than the other children of the same mother. Furthermore, he stated that he had not heard of a baby that had died whose mother had had the treatment, although several of the babies were at the time his report was made, three or four years old.

The society was so favorably impressed with Dr. Rogers' report that it unanimously appointed a committee to assist him in testing out this treatment upon a large number of patients.

DO YOU THINK IT WILL RAIN? IT'S A HABIT

There was quite a heavy wind and rain storm at noon today. At that hour the skies suddenly became clouded, sharp claps of thunder resounded and in a short time the rain came down in torrents. A great deal of wind accompanied the storm and in the northwest part of the city limbs were blown from trees, an especially large limb of a tree in West Locust street crashing through the fence. Quite a little garden was also damaged by the wind.

Many Newarkites are wondering if the wet weather of 1915 will repeat itself in 1916. It looks very much as though it would. The rain fell for May and the first eight days of June this year exceeds that of the same period last year. The first eight days of June last year had rain every day. The rains this year have been heavy, much more so than last year.

Last night the thermometer registered at 46 at midnight and people got out their comforts. It being cold and disagreeable where windows were left open. At 8 o'clock this morning it registered 70 degrees, a difference in temperature of 24 degrees in less than six hours. A year ago this coming Saturday light frost was reported in various sections of Licking County.

DISSENSION

A convention finished its deliberations at 1:30 o'clock this morning, having drafted a platform. Other committees pressed forward with their program trying to be ready with reports when the convention sessions were resumed.

Meanwhile discussions of possible peace and fusion of the two parties assumed a more concrete trend and the rumor became persistent that Colonel Roosevelt might come to Chicago and appear before both conventions in the role of peacemaker. Republican leaders discussed the proposal to invite Roosevelt to Chicago and decided, it was said, that if Roosevelt is prepared to declare himself out of the contest for the nomination and enter into an agreement for the selection of one of the Republican candidates, the invitation will be forthcoming.

Contrary to this view, leading Progressives declared that Colonel Roosevelt would be nominated by the Progressive convention, regarding what was done at the Coliseum or in the council rooms of the Republican party leaders. William Allen White of Kansas, insisted that Roosevelt would be nominated before midnight tonight and that Governor Johnson of California, would be nominated for vice-president by the Progressives. But the peace plan discussion involved Progressives in considerable numbers today. The word went out that a peace conference between responsible leaders of both parties might be begun before midnight. The conference would take up the suggestion that the Republican and Progressive convention name committees to meet and attempt to reach an agreement as to a joint candidate and joint platform.

Delay yesterday in this matter, some Republicans said, was due to lack of authority in the rules adopted for the temporary organization of the convention. Authority is forthcoming, however, it was said, in the new rules.

From Progressive quarters came reports that certain western Progressive delegations were solidly against any plans for fusion and peace. It was said that North Dakota and other Progressive state delegations desired a third party above all else, and would do everything possible to prevent the auditorium convention from entering into or ratifying any sort of peace pact. These state delegations, it was reported, were sufficient in numbers to block efforts of George W. Perkins and other Progressive leaders from entering into agreement with the Republicans.

If this situation is correct, it means in all probability that the Progressive convention will go on and complete its work regardless of what the leaders may suggest or order, and that Colonel Roosevelt will receive a nomination whether he wants it or not. Such conditions are serving in part to increase expectancy of Roosevelt's coming to Chicago, as it was stated by men closely in touch with developments, that only Roosevelt's arrival would head off the rank and file of Progressive delegates in the mood they exhibited yesterday and today.

Three days of rain, putting a stop to nearly all outdoor activities had a depressing effect upon many of the delegates, and as a result there has been developed a strain of beligerency in many normally not observable. There have occurred several personal clashes among delegates in hotel lobbies and last night in the lobby of the Congress hotel, Sherman adherents and Roosevelt followers engaged in a free-for-all fight and scramble that involved several score men. Police experienced difficulty in restoring order and several persons were slightly injured.

As the day progressed, it became more apparent that there would be two tickets in the field.

Victor Murdock, chairman of the Progressive national committee summed up the whole situation when he said today:

"Well, we left the door open, and the Republicans don't seem to be coming in."

That was the progressive leader's reply to inquiries as to whether there remained any prospect for harmony.

ALLIED AIR MEN BOMBARD WHARVES NEAR ANTWERP

To avoid disappointment, be sure your druggist sells you talc.

many and whether there was likely to be appointed today conference committees representing both parties to receive a pass upon peace suggestions.

Republican leaders discounted the success of the peace talk saying that action had been delayed for so long that a majority of the Republican delegates already have decided to proceed without regard for any third party, and nominate Justice Hughes to whom the most support has been gathered.

There are some among the progressives and among Roosevelt Republicans as well, who still believe that the colonel himself could save the day if he would come to Chicago. Representative Garner of Massachusetts who was defeated for Republican delegate-at-large from Massachusetts on a Roosevelt ticket pleaded with progressive leaders to bring Colonel Roosevelt on without delay. Word came from Oyster Bay however, that Colonel Roosevelt had received the telegram from Republican National Committeeman Jackson of Maryland, sent yesterday, urging him to come here in the interest of harmony. While the colonel announced it was not his present intention to accept the invitation, he would make public his reply later, and he did not indicate what his tenor would be.

The Republican nomination for president probably will be made in the Coliseum tomorrow but it is not expected the convention will adjourn before Saturday. Obviously the session will be prolonged to give more deliberate consideration than is usual to a nomination for second place, but the real purpose it is believed is to avoid adjournment before the progressive convention has acted.

The Progressive convention probably will not nominate before Saturday. There will only be a few hours of session today and that will be devoted to platform making and other routine. The delegates are confident that on Saturday they will name as their ticket Roosevelt and Johnson, their standard bearers of four years ago. While there has been little real discussion by Republicans of vice presidential possibilities and it is recognized that geographical conditions and political expediency will govern, considerable talk was heard today indicating that there might be concentration on either former vice president, Fairbanks of Indiana or former Senator Burton of Ohio. Nothing will be settled as to the vice presidency until the head of the ticket has been chosen.

When the doors of the Coliseum were opened this morning two hours before the Republican convention was due to begin business the pouring rain which has soaked the delegates and spectators for three days, was still falling. The hall was cold and damp, dripping rain coats and umbrellas soaked the floor but the bedraggled delegates made the best of it. The band in gallery enlivened things as the crowd began assembling.

The usual line of ticket speculators braved the rain, hawking admissions, the price of which steadily declines.

Inasmuch as the temporary organization had been made permanent yesterday nothing remained but to report the proceeding to the convention and ask its approval. The continued gloomy weather was beginning to show its depressing effect on all phases of the convention. There was evident among the early arriving delegates something of a disposition to believe that it might hasten the proceedings and bring about a final adjournment.

A rumor circulated last night that Justice Hughes had sent word to the Hughes campaign managers that he would not accept the Republican nomination unless it comes from a United Party, was revived today. It was denied by Frank H. Hitchcock and others at Hughes' headquarters. The Favorite Son combination and Roosevelt supporters were greatly interested in the report and naturally took no steps to counteract it.

Lured to Canada And Detained As a Prisoner of War

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, June 8.—Eugene Stitz, 23 years old, told the officials of the Hebrew Sheltering Home for Immigrants today that he had been lured from Buffalo over the Canadian line and interned for nine months in a Canadian detention camp. Stitz, who arrived here last night, said he had walked from Buffalo in 26 days.

He declared that he had served for three years in the German army and that he came to America in 1914 and obtained work in a dye works at Buffalo. While he was employed there, he said, a stranger offered him a better position in "a neighboring town" and Stitz accepted it. After a ride of about an hour on a train, they alighted and Stitz was seized by six men and taken to a barracks, where, he said he was kept a prisoner of war and made to scrub floors and clean the officers' quarters. He said he thought this was in Toronto.

Headaches Every Morning, Can't Eat Much Breakfast, Liver Not Acting?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Make Your Liver Act Freely In Half An Hour

Morning headaches come from a clogged liver. The bile tubes get choked and force the bile back into the stomach, the blood takes it up and the whole system becomes poisoned, the appetite becomes poor, especially at breakfast.

Get a 15-cent bottle of Tollo Water from the drug store and take about a third of a tumbler full in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In about thirty minutes it will start the liver acting freely, your headache will be relieved at once, because it flushes out the bile, really bathes the liver, leaving it clean and fresh. Then you can eat breakfast and enjoy it and there won't be any gas or discomfort afterwards.

Concentrated Tollo Water comes from Dawson Springs. It does not act by irritation, like calomel and other strong drugs that weaken the system, but by dissolving the obstructions and bathing the liver as nature requires. To remove the bile that has been absorbed into the blood you should take a wineglassful every morning for several days. It will clear up the skin, pimples and sallowness will disappear, your tongue will lose its furry coat and your natural, healthy color will return. Then an occasional glass before breakfast or at any time on an empty stomach will keep your liver clean and your appetite good.

It is expected that over eight hundred employees with their families will attend and an interesting program of games and sports has been arranged. There will be two ball games and a number of races, prizes being offered for fifteen events.

The transportation committee, F. J. Moore and E. G. Clunies, made every arrangement to handle the crowds successfully and the marshals of the day are W. H. Robinson and George A. Coyle.

This year's picnic will probably prove the largest to be held by the association and the following committee has been untiring in its efforts: L. Basehart, C. Myers, Mr. Boswell, F. J. Moore, J. M. Boyer, G. B. Darnell, M. A. Luther, E. O. Heller, P. R. Arbaugh and Charles West.

Theatres

Alhambra Tonight.
In answer to the many inquiries which have been received from the patrons of the Alhambra theatre, the management announces that it has arranged for the showing of a Clara Kimball Young picture on tonight, when "The Feast or Life," with Paul Capellani and Doris Kenyon, will be seen with Miss Young in the World Film feature directed by Albert Capellani and produced by Paragon.

The Auditorium.
Crowds were delighted yesterday with the William Fox 5-reel dramatic story "Sins of Men" featuring Stuart Holmes and Dorothy Bernard. It has a story that is gripping, full of pathos, the photography and stage settings being wonderful. The last showing of this masterpiece will be given at the Auditorium today. For two days, commencing tomorrow, The Triangle Kay-Bee production of "Hell's Hinges," with W. S. Hart will be offered. A New York critic on writing up "Hell's Hinges" has this to say: "Hell's Hinges" is rough, virile and even violent at times, but it convinces and registers as real life. I am sure that it will be counted as a splendid dramatic offering by an audience."

MESSANGER IS KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE

Ivan Blair, 14, a messenger boy at the Western Union, had a narrow escape from serious injury today when his bicycle collided with the big touring car of J. D. Montgomery at the corner of Hudson avenue and Church streets.

Mr. Montgomery was turning the corner from West Church street to go to the square when Ivan Blair cut across his path. The boy at the time was looking backward and of course did not see the auto turn the corner. He was knocked down but with great agility rolled away from the auto, the latter running over the bicycle, which was almost twisted out of shape. The youngster was not hurt in the least but was badly frightened.

ON TO COLUMBUS

Join in the Big Parade to Secure the U. C. T. Convention for Newark in 1917.

The publicity and convention bureau of the Chamber of Commerce is working hard to secure autos for the trip to Columbus which will leave Newark tomorrow at noon to make an effort to secure the U. C. T. convention for Newark in 1917.

A general invitation is extended to every auto owner to join in the trip and to take their lady friends with them. It has been impossible for the committee to see all the auto owners and they ask that every one who possibly can go on the trip to join and make a big showing.

The trip will start from West Main street where they are requested to meet and will proceed to Columbus where they will be met at the Great Southern hotel by the local U. C. T. with the Buckeye band and they will then go to Orléans park where the convention will spend the afternoon. The rate of speed at which the autos will go has been set at 20 miles an hour. This will get the party to Columbus in good time.

Auto owners may decorate their cars with flags and banners are being printed and may be secured at the American-Tribune Friday morning.

A committee of the local U. C. T. consisting of Bert Crawford, J. M. Black, Geo. Roley, Geo. Vail, J. F. Cherry, E. P. Roberts were in Columbus yesterday putting up banners and other advertising matter and returned today accompanied by Dan Alsapach when they will complete their work.

Newark wants this convention and much will depend upon the showing Newark makes in the big parade tomorrow. So now is our opportunity to act. Get your machine out and help us win.

AFTER ENTRIES FOR FAIR RACES NEXT SEPTEMBER

Secretary Frank Dudgeon and Director M. C. Harter of the Licking County Agricultural society are in Bowling Green, Wood county today to witness the races and book entries for the big Licking county fair to be held the last week in September. The Bowling Green races were scheduled to have started yesterday but were postponed on account of rain and will now go over to Saturday. There are a number of classy horses at the track and the Newark men will endeavor to secure a number of entries for the stake races, four in all, the purses of which are $1,000 each. The entries for the Licking races close Saturday at midnight and Secretary Dudgeon predicts that there will be a field of horses the equal of which has never been seen on the local track.

HUDSON AVENUE OPEN TO TRAFFIC TO NORTH STREET

Residents of Hudson avenue between Locust and North streets, today were celebrating the opening of Hudson avenue for traffic between the above named streets. The street has been closed for the past several weeks, being resurfaced, diverting traffic over Elmwood avenue and Fourth streets.

The work of re-surfacing Hudson avenue north from North street to Charles is now well under way and with good weather prevailing, the contractors of the Federal Asphalt company expect to have the street completed by the latter part of this week. This portion of the street will in all probabilities be opened for traffic the first part of next week.

GERMAN REPORT ADMITS LOSS OF CRUISER LUTZOW

London, June 8.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that a German official statement says that the loss of the cruisers Lutzow and Rostock in the battle of Jutland was withheld for military reasons. Both ships are said to have sunk well on their way to a harbor for repairs.

This is the first mention of the loss of the cruiser Rostock. The Rostock was a small warship of 4900 tons and was built in 1912. She carried 373 men and was armed with 12 four-inch guns and two torpedo tubes. The Lutzow was a 26,000-ton dreadnaught battle cruiser. Her destruction has previously been claimed by British naval officers.

An Old Green Lane of Summer

No trip this year to Europe and no time, perhaps, to visit Across the old lane continent to San Francisco Bay
No Canada or Mexico, no strange lands
But there's one thing everybody has the time and chance to do
An old green lane of summer down some Maryland vale of cheer
Or the valley of Virginia, where the dreams of life are dear

An old green lane of summer in our own sweet Maryland
Ah, who shall ever travel in its magic shall be born
On the wings of tender beauty further than a fevered back to childhood and to childhood's dewy morn
And the birds shall make a music and the flowers shall scent the air
With a loveliness of summer that will drive away your care!

No trip this year to Europe, but a green lane free to all
Where the orchards and the meadows and the ivy covered wall
Of some quaint old Maryland homestead beckon back again to days
That are sweet with summer beauty in the quiet country ways
An old green lane of summer, where the green boughs over you meet
And a bob white's calling softly from a field of waving wheat —Folger McKinstry in Baltimore Sun.

FRANCE ALREADY PLANS TO REBUILD WRECKED CITIES

Teaching Men How to Repair Damages Wrought by War.

"The Reconstructed City" is the name of the world's exposition being held in Paris, and back of this exposition is a story showing that with all Germany's wonderful efficiency the French are showing an equal amount of foresight. "The Reconstructed City" is a French national exposition to teach, even at this early date, how to rebuild the war wrecked portions of France when the war is ended. That the French government is already planning on an entire reconstruction of the cities destroyed by the movements of armies back and forth across the northern provinces is evidence of foresight of an unusual type.

It is to be a French exposition entirely, and America's part has been only the sending by lumber manufacturers of an exhibit showing the possibilities of American lumber in this work of reconstruction.

"The Reconstructed City" is in several sections, different parts of the exposition being devoted to such departments as road building, city planning, city residence construction, city industrial buildings and rural work. In some cases the city planning department will work for an entire reconstruction on entirely new lines of the cities which have been wrecked by bombardment. In other cases only building construction along the old streets will be required. The road work will be important also, for shells have raised havoc with the famous highways of northern France. Ruined farms will be no small part of the problem of reconstruction.

One lumber association, through its European agent, learned of the projected exposition and was able to get an exhibit not only of southern building types, but of typical American structural work, on the last ship leaving New Orleans before the exposition. The American lumbermen have a series of models of buildings for city and farm, including a small mill construction building for industrial purposes and models particularly of farm buildings, such as an ideal barn, swine house, poultry house and granary. Photographs of groups of these buildings are included, and the balance of the exhibit is made up of samples of southern pine in various stages from the original timber to the finished lumber. One of the unique features of the exhibit will be a relief plan of an ideal farm, with model buildings worked in, and a landscape effect with hills in relief, streams and roads.

WAIT ON MAPS TO CHANGE.

School Won't Buy Geographies Because Soon They'll Be Obsolete.

"Buy geographies with the maps in them as printed now? What's the use when the future will see the major part of Europe stamped Germany, and the books purchased now will have to go to the scrap heap?" That's what Trustee Hensel of the West Hoboken (N. J.) board of education said at a recent board meeting. Trustee Charles Reuh agreed in voting down the resolution for the purchase of the books, deciding to wait to see what the Kaiser would accomplish.

BASEBALL IN WAR ZONE.

Canadians and Americans Organize League of Eight Teams.

Canadians and Americans serving in the British army have formed a baseball league of eight teams. The season will start the second week in June. Many resident Americans patronized the games last summer, and it is expected there will be greater attendance this year. Baseball has become more popular with Britons through these army matches than ever before.

Suffragists Face Problem.

Because delegates to the Republican national convention have reserved all available hotel rooms in Chicago for the period of the convention in June, woman suffragists, who will hold a convention there at the same time, may have to charter lake steamers to provide sleeping places.

It isn't necessary for a man to be constantly yawning in order to have an open countenance.

AUTO CLUB WILL BOOST FOR NEWARK

At a meeting of the directors of the Newark Auto Club, held in the offices of Attorney A. A. Stasel above the Old Home Bank, it was decided to erect a sign at Linnville reading: "Newark 9 Miles, Pike Road." Another sign will be erected at Jacksontown reading: "Newark 7 Miles, Pike Road." An arrow on the sign will direct the tourists towards Newark. The signs may be the means of diverting many tourists to this city. The club will also erect a number of danger signs over the county. They have been ordered but have not yet been delivered. All auto drivers are requested to report to Secretary H. H. Baker the place where any bad roads are found and the latter will keep a record of same and endeavor to give it publicity through the local press.

BROTHER IN PATH OF THE BIG TORNADO

George S. Yates, formerly of this city, may have been one of the victims of the frightful tornado which swept over parts of Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Illinois Monday night. Mr. Yates, who is a brother of Constable Joe Yates of this city, resides at Judsonia, Ark., a village of 800 inhabitants. It is reported that 50 people were killed there, double that many injured and one-third of the town swept away. Mr. Joseph Yates has sent special delivery letters to his relatives to inquire if any of them were victims of the tornado. All wires are down and it will take some days to repair the service. Mr. Yates has been in the southwest for a number of years. He married the late Belle Hirst of this city.

COMPTON SUICIDES.

William Compton, 43, who last Saturday shot and perhaps fatally wounded his wife, at Zanesville, was found dead Wednesday afternoon in a coal shed on a vacant lot near the head of Lee street, Zanesville, by two small boys. A revolver with two empty cartridges was lying on his body and bullet holes in his left breast. Corner McFarland, of Zanesville believes the man killed himself a short time after he had shot his wife.

Carlsbad by law requires all buildings to be as nearly fireproof as possible, with the result that the city's firemen earn most of their wages as chimney sweeps.

Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

Two hundred public spirited business and professional men of this city are organized and at work under competent leadership this week determined to wipe out the debt upon the Young Men's Christian Association of Newark. The workers themselves subscribed more than one-fourth of the required $30,000 and in their first day's effort raised about $2500, completing about one-third of the work.

The public is familiar with the work that is being done by the Y. M.
C. A. and the demand for its continuance is widespread. For years the trustees have labored under disadvantage that comes with debt and not a little time of the efficient general secretary, Frank L. Johnson, has taken in devising ways and means to make "ends meet."

With the association debt wiped away and with working funds with which to carry on the activities of the organization the Y. M. C. A. can be made a greater influence for good in this community. That it is now doing effective work nobody will deny, neither can any one be found who will say that more and better work can not be done if the organization has the money and the facilities with which to work.

It is true that demands upon one's resources are numerous and that many have felt that a later date would be a more opportune time to conduct a campaign but the time when all would be suited would never arrive. The campaign is on and it is going to succeed, though it will take persistent and earnest effort. Those who are able to contribute should not hesitate as the cause is good and the money given will be put to good use. Make up your mind now as to just what you can do so as to be able to give the solicitors a prompt decision. They are all busy men who are giving not only liberally themselves but are contributing their time and their effort to put the Newark Y. M. C. A.
upon a solid basis.

Reporting a Convention.

It is the dream of every "cub" newspaper reporter that some day he will be assigned to report a national convention. These gatherings are the biggest news events to be covered in American life.

The task of covering one of these historic meetings is not just what the "cub" reporter or the public thinks it is. The newspaper reader may suppose that the staff writer sits in his reserved seat eagerly scratching down with a pencil stub what the orators are saying. But actually he may not be in the convention hall much of the time. The Associated Press gets all the public will read of the speeches. It is for the star reporter to keep close to the

Anything To Beat Wilson.

(New York World.)

The Republican party meets in National Convention today without a leader, without a candidate, without an issue, without a guiding principle and without a purpose except as that purpose may be expressed in terms of "Anything to Beat Wilson."

It is a bankrupt party, gambling desperately for the Presidency. Indeed, it is two parties gambling desperately for the Presidency, and these two parties have nothing in common except their frantic desire for power and spoils. There alone can be found the element of possible cohesion.

The issue is as uncertain as the candidate, because there is no policy of government on which the party as a whole dares to take a definite and final stand. Some of it is for war at any price and some of it is for peace at any price. Some of it is for preparedness and some of it is for pacifism. Some of it is for exalting the tariff and some of it is for subordinating the tariff. Some of it is for intervention in Mexico and some of it is for Pan-Americanism. Some of it is for America First and some of it is for "Deutschland über Alles."
Some of it sings "The Star-Spangled Banner" and some of it sings "Die Wacht am Rhein" and some of it sings "God Save the King!"

Even on the paramount issue of "Anything to Beat Wilson" there is discord and disagreement; for in every faction there are Republicans who prefer Wilson to the favorite candidate of any other faction.

In only one respect is the convention running true to the record that the Republican party has made since the Civil War. It is a convention of property. It is a convention of Big Business. It is a convention of organized wealth. It represents the restlessness of great financial interests under an administration which treats them justly but which they cannot control as they are in the habit of controlling administrations.

Under Hanna the Republican party became frankly and unreservedly the property of property, and in this servitude the convention is consistent; but this is a time in which even property is wavering and uncertain.
It would like to defeat Wilson, but it has no fixed opinion as to the type or character of the man it would like to substitute for Wilson. It too is wandering in a maze of doubt and suspicion. It is for preparedness, but it is not keen about a degree of preparedness that might arouse the labor and the farmer vote. It wants an aggressive foreign policy that will more strongly favor the belligerents that have negotiated extensive war loans in the United States, but it does not want a foreign policy that will antagonize the German vote, which is mainly Republican. It wants a restoration of the monopoly tariff, but it does not want the court to suspect that that is the court of tariff it is advocating. It wants to put Wall Street back into the White House, but does not quite see how the thing can be done. The kind of man it would like to nominate, and the kind of man it could nominate it has no desire to nominate.

And so the Republican party in convention assembled shuts its eyes and presses the trigger in the fond and inspiring hope of the amateur hunter who shot to hit it if it was a deer and to miss if it was a calf.

Re-electing Mr. Wilson.

(New York Tribune, Republican.)

If Mr. Justice Hughes is nominated at Chicago in advance of any declaration by him of his views on vital issues it is the deliberate judgment of The Tribune that he will be defeated at the polls.

Mr. Hughes has been designated by the hyphens as their agent to punish Mr. Wilson for his partial ordinal to comply with Postum ordinals. No German-American has made the smallest concealment of the purpose of the hyphens to use Mr.
Hughes to enforce German wishes at Washington.

Such being the case, there are thousands and thousands of Americans who will see no greater duty than to stand by the President of the United States, assailed by alien influences because of his defense of American rights.

No words of Mr. Hughes after nomination can in the smallest degree remove the impression that he was willing to win the nomination by hyphen aid, and that his silence his retreat behind the Supreme Court bench, was a deliberate attempt to get for himself votes and support that might be repulsed if he were to say after it.

The Tribune does not believe that the people of the United States will turn from Mr. Wilson to a Republican candidate who has not only followed the course which has earned Mr. Wilson just censure among patriotic Americans, but has also permitted himself to be used as the club of disloyal and treasonable citizens.

The people of the United States demand courageous and unselfish leadership. They do not and they will not prefer Republican cowardice to Democratic. The German-Americans have endorsed Mr. Hughes. The Republican convention seems prepared to accept the dictation of these hyphens. Mr. Hughes seems quite ready to receive the nomination at such hands, but The Tribune does not believe that the people of the United States will ever ratify such a bargain or accept a candidate nominated under such circumstances.

If the Republican National Convention accepts the German-American candidate and Mr. Hughes opponents to be the German-American candidate even for purposes of obtaining the Republican nomination,
Woodrow Wilson will be elected.

Yuan's Death.

(Chicago Tribune.)

While the attention of the American public is about equally divided between the death of Earl Kitchener and the Republican convention in Chicago, the diplomatists of the world are looking anxiously toward the other side of the globe. With the death of Yuan Shi Kai, president, emperor, and strong man of China, the pivot about which oriental politics and diplomacy has revoluted for years has been removed.

Wise diplomatists probably knew a month ago that he was dead or was going to die. It is no violation of Chinese political comment of a month ago in the far east predicted his retirement. If this is the case Yuan's stomach trouble was merely a crisis which a suddenly announced death would have brought on. At any rate a strong cabinet has been appointed at Peking and the vice president, who went into retreat when Yuan had himself chosen emperor, has been actually elected president by several of the revolted provinces in the south.

This circumstance makes it appear that Yuan was sacrificed in order to cheat the Japanese out of an opportunity for intervention. They have been working toward intervention for months. Additional Japanese troops have been going to Korea and to China, ostensibly to guard the Japanese railroad lines, both those taken over from the Germans in Shantung and those in Manchuria.
Japan's increasing interests in the Yangtze valley also required guarding. It is known that during the last two months Japan's munitions exports to Russia have grown smaller, and it is supposed that these arms found their way either to Japanese troops in China or to the Chinese revolutionists. The Japanese press also has been furious against Yuan for more than two months since the papers demanding intervention at once and others demanding the resignation of Yuan. If the Chinese have both found a way to stop the revolution and to avoid Japanese intervention his death is particularly fortunate for China and probably for American interests there.

There is a possibility, however, that the new leaders of China will not be strong enough to keep peace in China. China is in a ferment and no one can know what the brew will be. Yuan's death may be the signal for more violent confusion and for immediate Japanese intervention. It must be remembered that what Japan takes she keeps. That is what Japanese armament is for. Either China or Japan or both are emerging as world forces. There are half a billion of them.

A Great Problem.
When a business man undertakes a great project, such as the safe and the initial flight across the ocean, but to bring long distance air navigation into reality. This adds additional interest to the formation of the American Trans-Oceanic company, which has been brought into being for the purpose of continuous experiments, and has for its goal the solution of the problem, which may easily be the next great accomplish-ballots Clark got more than half the votes cast, but as two-thirds are necessary in a Democratic convention, he was finally defeated. Other prominent candidates were Judson Harmon of Ohio, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Thomas R. Mar-chosen as the candidate for vice

GERMS ARE DANGEROUS

Do not overlook the importance of having your home entirely free from disease germs which lurk in many places even in the most modern homes and become dangerous to good health. Every home should have a bottle of hyclorite antiseptic ready for instant use, as there is nothing so effective when applied to burns, scratches or bruises, because hyclorite instantly kills the germs that infect the wound or bruise.

For acid mouths, for cleansing the crevices as well as the surfaces of the teeth hyclorite is positively necessary. Rinse the mouth and gargle with a few drops of hyclorite and you will escape throat troubles and other germ diseases and the mouth and breath will be clean and sweet.

Hyclorite is used extensively in hospitals, by dentists and physicians and sold by druggists most everywhere. It is the one thoroughly reliable antiseptic and should be in every home.

eration in questions which concern and interest the parish. At present the first aim is to secure sufficient funds to insure the building of a gymnasium and up to date school building.

The membership cards were distributed at last night's meeting and the league was organized. The chairman of the committees will appoint captains, four or five to a section, and the work of canvassing the parish will start this evening, one of the features being a complete census.

The next meeting of the league will be held on Wednesday night of next week, at 7 o'clock, in order that those who desire may attend the Flag Day exercises.

STUBBORN ECZEMA HEALED BY AMOLOX

We are daily receiving letters of praise from people who have been cured by Amolox. Many of them tell how, for years, they have tried different remedies and doctors in the vain effort to find relief. Some became discouraged and lose all hope of ever being cured. E. R. Frisbie, 187 Sycamore St., Mansfield, O., writes: "Our baby's face was covered with eczema scales, scabs and scabs. She was a pitiable sight. We tried everything. Took her to Pittsburgh doctors but were unable to find any relief until we used Amolox. It cured her within a short time."

Amolox ointment will quickly heal pimples on the face, red nose and minor skin troubles. Chronic cases of dry or moist scaly eczema require both the ointment and liquid to effect a cure. At all drug stores. Trial size, 50c. Recommended and guaranteed by T. J. Evans.

WOULD GOVERN RETAIL PRICES

Measure Intended to Protect Standard Goods.

MEETS MUCH OPPOSITION.

Advocates Hold That Some Stores Sell Well Advertised Goods at Loss So as to Induce Customers to Buy Other Things—Opponents Say It Would Drive Little Men Out of Business.

Interest in the so called "Stephens bill," which will legalize contracts between producers and merchants for the resale of articles sold under trademark or special brand at a standard uniform price, has been renewed by the result of the referendum recently held by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The history of this referendum dates back to October, 1914, when a committee was appointed by the National Chamber of Commerce to investigate the subject of the maintenance of resale prices.

After several months' investigation it returned a report giving with detail the arguments for and against price maintenance and ending with this conclusion: "Your committee is convinced that legislation permitting the maintenance of resale prices, under proper restrictions, on identified merchandise, for voluntary purchase, made and sold under competitive conditions, would be to the best interest of the producer, the distributor and the purchasing public or consumer."

Objections were heard from merchants who are opposed to the enforcement of uniform resale prices. The committee was instructed to make a further investigation and submit another report. Percy S. Straus of New York and Frederick H. Rike of Dayton, O., were added to the committee to represent the opposition, and their attitude was well known.

A second report was divided, seven of the members of the enlarged committee reiterating the conclusion of the year before, while Mr. Straus, Mr. Rike and Mr. Armstrong signed a minority report declaring they were "unable to approve of the principle of price maintenance as being in the public interest. We recommend therefore that no federal legislation be enacted on the subject at this time."

Chamber Holds Referendum. As a result of this divided report the National Chamber of Commerce held a referendum to learn the position of its members, and the result of the balloting is a victory for the advocates of price maintenance.

The fight for and against the uniform price principle has been lively. The American Fair Trade league, an organization of wholesale and retail merchants and producers, was aggressive in the affirmative, while the big city department store, mail order house and trading stamp associations did effective work in the negative. Speakers engaged in joint debate before various local chambers of commerce and boards of trade.

The opponents of standard uniform prices on well known goods are found in the large cities—mail order houses, big department stores, cut rate drug stores and chain grocery stores that insist they have a right to sell goods at any price they please and to use them in any way they please once the goods have been paid for. The smaller retailers and merchants doing business in the smaller towns, as a rule, have favored the standard price proposition, as they seldom cut prices on advertised trademark goods, and they feel the competition of the larger stores that use cut prices as an advertisement and to give the impression that they sell all articles at correspondingly low prices.

Advocates of the principle of uniform prices have urged that cut prices were used by big business to crush little competitors; that low prices on well known brands of goods were made solely with the intent of luring customers into their stores where they would buy other goods on which the prices not only had not been cut, but had actually been raised.

Several bills relating to the subject are now pending in congress. Two bills, similar in general tenor, but different in details, were introduced by Representative Dan V. Stephens of Nebraska. Senator Ashurst introduced in the senate a bill identical with one of the Stephens measures, and Senator Borah of Idaho has also introduced a bill along the same lines.

The Stephens bill is permissive in its provisions and is in no sense compulsory. It merely provides that a grower (meaning the farmer) or producer of an article sold under a trademark or special brand may register it in Washington and file a schedule of the prices at which the article is to be sold at wholesale and at retail. The producer or manufacturer is required to make uniform terms to all dealers and all consumers. Merchants who desire to handle the goods must sell them at no more and no less than the schedule prices.

Objections to the bill are based on the claim that it is in the interest of producers and that it will give them the power to control prices to their own advantage and to the detriment of the retailer. The measure is also declared to be cumbersome in its provisions and to have such an endless amount of red tape that it would complicate simple business affairs.

Alex Kettell of Columbus is spending the day in Newark.

Granville

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, June 8.—A capacity audience in Recital Hall, Wednesday evening, June 7, enjoyed the delightful recital given by Miss Irene Bonshire of Newark and Miss Imogen Hamblen, two of the graduates of the Denison Conservatory. It was a typical commencement occasion, with the stage tastefully decorated in green and white, forming a fitting setting for the charming girl graduates in their pretty gowns. The program was a delightful variety and well balanced both performers holding the interest of the audience to the last note. Miss Bonshire received warm recognition for the ease with which she handled the piano numbers, especially the first ones on her program, and was repeatedly recalled to receive the floral tributes handed over the footlights. She excels in the theoretical work of the class room and has several fine musical compositions to her credit which will be published, and one of which, a "Lullaby", was sung by Miss Hamblen, who was also represented on the program in a charming little song, "The Golden Fish." Miss Hamblen shows gratifying results of her work in the conservatory. Her last evening's program was well selected and well suited to her voice, which is exquisitely clear in tone and sympathetic in quality. She sang with admirable restraint and excellent control, so that the climax was reached in the closing group of English songs—which were greeted with a storm of applause—accompanied by many gifts of choice flowers. Both young ladies are members of Delta Omicron sorority, and have been prominent in the many musical activities of the college. Following the concert, an informal reception was held in Miss Ferrar's studio, when the successful aspirants for musical honors were showered with congratulations. Below is the program:

The annual alumni banquet of the Granville high school which was held Wednesday evening, June 7, in the social rooms of the Presbyterian church was a success from every viewpoint. The supper was appetizing and beautifully served, the tables tastefully decorated and the attendance good. # HINTS FOR PROGRESSIVE FARMERS

Are you one of the boys in your community who is entered in the 1916 Ohio Corn Growing Contest? How are you handling your soil, how many times do you plan to cultivate your crop, and what yield do you expect to secure? Yields depend upon the proper preparation of the seed bed, the cultivation of the crop, the use of manure and fertilizer, and many other factors. Boys, study the methods used by Dewey Hanes and the champions of other states if you would duplicate or increase their yields.

Alfalfa in Ohio.
That "alfalfa on every farm" will be realized in Ohio as far as it is possible within the next few years, is the prediction of John Begg, of Putnam county, Ohio. He has just returned from a speaking tour at farmers' institutes, throughout Ohio. He reports that the subject of alfalfa was on nearly every program and that the conditions under which the crop can best be grown are becoming better understood each year. Soil fertility was also foremost among the subjects discussed, and Mr. Begg reports that Ohio farmers are seeing the necessity of making and caring for their manures better than in former days and that they also see the need of adding commercial fertilizer to balance up their manure and render it more efficient. The bulletins of the Ohio Experiment Station he recommends highly to farmers who are interested in improving their soils.

Large Fruit Yield.
Five thousand bushels of apples were grown on a seven and one-half acre orchard by Chas. Thurnberg, in Ashland county, Ohio. During 1912, 1913 and 1914 the same orchard produced but six bushels of wheat per acre at the time the orchard was set out. Mr. Thurnberg cultivated the orchard for the first five years and has since kept up the grass mulch. The land was well fed with a heavy coat of manure and a liberal application of a high-grade fertilizer when it was planted and the same profitable management has since been maintained.

Profits and Sizes of Farms.
"Let it be remembered that there is more profit in a large yield on a smaller area than a smaller yield on a large area. If you have a small farm it is much better to have it well-drained and fertilized so that you will get a large yield from few acres," says Abe T. Hazlerigg, Vigo county, Indiana, who believes it is possible for every farmer to grow 80 to 100 bushels of corn per acre. "Remember that the productiveness of the land must be maintained and the crops furnished with plantfood, so that they can produce large yields profitably. Every farmer should study his soils and his crops and adapt his methods to them."

Rising Farm Values.
The present value of unimproved land throughout the United States averages $45 per acre which is $5 more than one year ago and $9 more than four years ago, according to the census reports of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. According to the present gain, an unimproved farm in Ohio valued at $5,000 is earning $450 in increased value annually. Through the growing of cover crops, the keeping of live-stock and the building up of the soil with fertilizers and manures, increases in value of the unimproved farm may be doubled.

Hessian Fly.
An opportune time is now at hand to observe the actions of the Hessian Fly in your community or in your own wheat. If it is there in large numbers, as you will find by looking for the "flax seed" stage of the pest, it is time now that you begin to plan a fight.
There are two broods, the spring and the fall. The spring brood doesn't migrate and here is your chance to kill thousands of them. It will be unprofitable for you to burn the stubble where they live, and the best way to handle them, is to plow immediately after the crop is off. Once turned under, they never come out.
This same plowing will do something else. It will be the means of enabling you to plow deeper for the crop that is to follow. Frequent harrowing will keep the weeds down, conserve the moisture and set free plant food. Along with this, commercial fertilizer, so important in feeding the land for maximum yields, will do its best.
Experiments in Kansas showed that the yield of wheat was increased as much as 21 bushels per acre on land that was summer plowed as compared to the yield on land plowed just before the seeding.

Analyze Your Soil.
At the present time, when your wheat is ripening, is your opportunity to "get a line on the needs of your soil for the crops that are to follow. This is easy since we know that as concerns the soil there are two essentials to a successful wheat crop,—a sweet soil and a fertile soil. The first can be determined by a Litmus paper test. Get a nickel's worth of blue litmus paper at the drug store, pack some of the soil from your field into a ball, seeing that it is moist; then break the ball in halves, lay a strip of the paper between them and press firmly into a ball again. Allow this to remain from two to four minutes, break open and see what has happened. If the paper is red, your soil is sour, and what must be done to insure good crops is to apply air-slacked lime at the rate of from $50 to 2,000 pounds per acre or ground limestone at the rate of 1 to 2 tons can be used. Do this after the wheat is cut and the land plowed.

As concerns the fertility of your soil you can observe the growing crop and tell approximately the needs of the soil. We know that ammonia makes a quick start and a large vegetative growth; that phosphoric acid hastens maturity and puts the plumpness into the grain, and that it is potash that puts the stiffness in the straw. Are the stalks short and spindling? Do the heads fill out, and are the grains plump? Does the straw lodge or fall down? If these things happen it is a mute appeal from your land that it needs a properly balanced ration in order to carry through to maturity and a heavy yield the crops that are sown on it.

We have seen old feed lots make six foot straw, yet yield not over 20 bushels of wheat per acre. The trouble here was that there was too much ammonia in proportion to the amounts of available phosphoric acid and potash. Very few of us indeed would say that on old feed lot would need fertilizer, but this is just what it does need, in order to balance the supply of plantfood and in this way enable it to put forty bushels of wheat on the forty bushel straw which it grows. The same thing is true of heavy rich soils, and of course where the soil is poor in everything, fertilizer should be applied which furnishes all the elements needed.

PRESERVE YOUR CHILD'S HAIR

When your child is grown, the condition of the hair is the most important thing that will determine the way it will grow. The hair is composed of about 175,000 delicate oil glands. Ordinary soaps and shampoos will soon destroy the natural oil and the fatty roots of these glands making the hair dry and brittle or destroying it entirely. EVANS' KUT-RATE SHAMPOO is an anti-septic oil shampoo that cleanses and purifies the scalp thoroughly and leaves the hair just as nature intended soft, silky and the scalp slightly moist with oil, but no surplus oil on the hair. ## Safe Home Remedy for Skin-Troubles

Eczema, ringworm, and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need never hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is the resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of resinol ointment and resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful, that thousands of other physicians have prescribed it constantly for over twenty years.

Generally resinol stops itching at once, and heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and resinol soap can be bought at any druggist's.

Resinol Soap is not only unusually cleansing and softening, but its regular use gives to the skin and hair that natural beauty of perfect health which cosmetics can only imitate.

VETERANS TO BE WELL HOUSED

Encampment Arrangements at Marion Elaborate.

LOCAL COMMITTEES ACTIVE

Five Steam Railroads and Two Inter-urban Lines to Run Special Trains to Accommodate the Large Crowns Anticipated During State Meeting of Grand Army, June 12 to 15—Monster Preparedness Parade to Be a Feature of the Second Day.

Marion, O.—(Special).—All that is needed is the weather to make the Marion meeting of the Civil War veterans the greatest state meeting ever held in the United States. This is the opinion of the officers of the department of Ohio, who visited Marion this week and acquainted themselves with the program and the elaborate arrangements which have been made.

The fund to defray the cost of the encampment has jumped to nearly $10,000, which insures a remarkable program of entertainment from the hour the first gun is fired, Monday, the 12th. No small portion of this sum will be spent for music and decorations. The number of reservations which have been secured number 9,000, which means that Marion will be able to house the visitors in an easy manner.

Eight regiments will hold their annual reunion at Marion. The Medal Legion of Honor will hold its annual meeting in the offices of the White Sulphur Stone company. Every member of this order is a recipient of a medal, awarded by congress for valor. The Thirtieth Ohio Cavalry Association will meet in Marion. The G. A. R. posts of Ashland, Wooster, Mansfield, Lima, Kenton, Delaware, Upper Sandusky and Bucyrus are among the number of posts which will attend in a body. Large delegations from the soldiers' homes at Dayton and Sandusky will attend. Memorial Post No. 141 of Cleveland, with guns and colors, will be here sixty strong for escort duty. Forsyth Post of Toledo, with guns and colors, will be here to act as an escort for Department Commander Seely P. Mount and National Commander Elias R. Monfort. Company K. Old Guard, Columbus, and Company B. Old Guard, Newark, wearing the uniforms of '61, will be here to full strength. As many life and drum corps will feature the parades as a national encampment boasts of, including the corps of Gallipolis, Columbus, Marion, Mansfield, Newark and Ashland. These drum corps will march in the big parades of Tuesday and Wednesday and will also be in line, along with twenty bands, in the G. A. R. parade of the closing day, Thursday.

So strategic is the location of Marion, served by five railroads and two traction lines, that an especially large crowd is anticipated. The Pennsylvania railroad will run a special train from Marietta, June 12, among the passengers on which will be the thirty members of the Newcomerstown band. The Erie and Big Four roads will run special trains, and thirty-four special cars over interurban lines have already been arranged for. This indicates the magnitude of the encampment.

One of the few surviving veterans of the Mexican War will be a prominent figure of the encampment, namely, Colonel John Conwell of Cadiz, Ohio. L. Vant Dodge, junior vice commander of the national organization, engaged a reservation this week. Mr. Dodge is president of Berea university, Berea, Ky. Also soldiers of

GEORGE W. WHYSALL, Chairman of Automobile Committee.

The Civil War were under fire more than Major S. N. Titus of Marion, who is beloved throughout the state by his comrades and who will figure in the programs. Another well known veteran who resides in Marion, and who has a host of friends throughout Ohio, is Joseph E. Crow, color bearer of the One Hundred and Seventy-fourth regiment. During a later engagement of the war, Color Bearer Crow was shot and fell on his flag.

Thorough preparations have been made for the hospital requirements and every member of the Marion County Medical association is enrolled on the hospital staff. The services of four nurses have been engaged for the entire encampment. The hospital tent and the rest room are to be in the rear of the residence of Dr. Dana O. Weeks, one of the leading members of the State Medical association. The hospital committee is headed by Dr. Weeks. The hospital is to be known as the Oliver W. Weeks Hospital, in memory of the father of Dr. Weeks, who, in 1894, was the surgeon general of the national encampment, and in the preceding year was the medical director of the department of Ohio. Oliver W. Weeks was largely responsible for the beautiful memorial chapel in Marion.

FRANK GLOSSER, Chairman of Decorating Committee.

Herewith are reproduced likenesses of a number of Marion people who have been especially active in the encampment work. A. C. Edmondson, banker, the chairman of the finance committee, is deserving of a large share of the credit for securing the $10,000 fund, and his unbounded enthusiasm and tireless energy have been major factors in the success of the work. Mr. Edmondson is the son of Captain Robert Edmondson, who recruited a company at Urbana. Hon. T. E. Andrews, formerly of the local militia and a veteran of the Spanish War, has charge of the monster preparedness parade to be staged Tuesday night, June 13, in which companies of militia from Gallon, Bucyrus, Delaware, Kenton and Marion will be in line. This parade will be featured by a large number of beautiful floats, including an army float and a navy float. Members of every fraternal organization in the city will be in line. Several industries of the city are planning special features, and one may be expected from the mammoth steel mills recently built in Marion, in the event the mills are ready for operation at that time. E. J. Schoenlaub, chairman of the conventions committee of the chamber of commerce, is responsible for securing the encampment for Marion, and has figured largely in the arrangements. George H. Whysall, president of the C. M. & D. Ry. Co., has been an indispensable factor in all angles of the work, and is a member of practically every committee. Frank Glosser, chairman of the decorating committee, has outlined a plan for the decoration of the city which will surpass the decoration feature of any G. A. R. encampment, according to the Fern Decorating company of Cincinnati, which is carrying out Mr. Glosser's plan. As the manager of the light and power plant of the Columbus, Delaware & Marion Railway company, Mr. Glosser has been a very valuable man for this chairmanship, and the plans which he has evolved for the electric illumination of the city will turn night into day. J. F. Prendergast, who is perhaps better known among railroad men than any other man in the central west, is the head of the trans portation committee. Through his efforts widespread publicity from the railroads has been secured, and all details as to adequate train service have been attended to. Another leader in the work is Arthur J. Berry, president of the Marion Chamber of Commerce, who as the head of the city's commercial organization, is desirous that effort be strained to make the program of the golden anniversary reflect credit on the home city of United States Senator Warren G. Harding. Mr. Berry joins with Colonel George B. Christian chairman of the executive committee in the belief that the Marion encampment will go down in the G. A. R. annals of the country as a red letter event

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your back is aching or bladder bothers, drink lots of water eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

GERMANS DO NOT HOLD ALL OF VAUX FORT

FRENCH CLAIM TROOPS STILL OCCUPY OUTSKIRTS AND FLANKING TRENCHES.

Its Loss Would Be Determined Only to Morale of Defenders Valuable to Enemy.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Paris, June 8. 12:01 p. m.—Heavy fighting continues in the vicinity of Fort Vaux, northeast of Verdun. The war office report today says French troops still occupy the outskirts of the fort as well as trenches to the right and left of the works.

The fate of the fort upon which the efforts of the Germans have been centered for three days, remains in suspense according to the latest reports received by the French war office. Its loss would be regretted by France on account of the moral effect and for the sake of the garrison who struggled so gallantly amidst its shell-swept ruins, but military critics assert that its possession would be of little benefit to the enemy.

The fort has long since been dismantled and is regarded by the French command as merely of value as an obstruction post. It is asserted that its occupation will not help the Germans to take Verdun any more than their capture of Fort Douaumont, which they held for three months without being able to make a step forward.

Behind Fort Vaux the enemy is confronted by an exceptionally strong inner line to the defense of which both nature and military art have given their greatest aid. This line includes the positions of Froide Terre and the Heights of Souville and Tavenas which are crowded with forts. Vaux forms an advance work which supplements the defense of Souville fort and was constructed with a view of sweeping the ravine which it commands.

The loss of the fortification itself of which an intimation was given in last night's report is conceded. The announcement says the fort was abandoned by the garrison after it had been reduced to a heap of ruins by an incessant bombardment of seven days. German attacks on the adjacent positions thus far have been unsuccessful.

West of the Meuse intermittent cannonading was carried on last night.

HANOVER MASONS DEDICATE NEW HOME; STATE OFFICERS THERE

The dedication of the new Masonic home of New Home Lodge, at Hanover took place this afternoon under the auspices of the Grand Lodge, of Ohio. District Lecturer F. O. Levering of Mt. Vernon officiating. The members of the Newark Masonic bodies including the Knights Templar will attend the dedication ceremonies. The different bodies met at 12:30 p. m. and boarded the 1:05 train for Hanover. Those going in automobiles reported at the temple at the same time in order that it may be known definitely how many will be present. The parade in Hanover, which started at 2:00 o'clock was under the direction of F. M. B. Windle as grand marshal assisted by T. M. Rugg as aid.

STEEL BUYERS SHY OF PRICES; BUYING LIGHT.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 8.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Except in the case of certain special commodities, new buying is in evidence in the iron and steel trade only when backed by actual necessity. Consumers are shy of high prices. In some lines, however, the rush of business remains unabated. For instance, British interests are in the market for from 15,000 to 20,000 tons of ship plates for October delivery, and the plate market remains unusually firm at 3.75 to 4c Pittsburgh. Owing to the unprecedented demand for gasoline, oil country goods are exceedingly active and prices on sizes over 2 inches in diameter have been advanced $4 to $5 a ton.

The domestic pig iron markets are quiet in all centers. There is considerable foreign inquiry pending on the east, aggregating about 50,000 tons, and it is expected that a large portion of this will be closed at an early date.

ANNUAL WASTE OF WOOD REACHES 36 MILLION CORDS.

Washington, May 8.—There are more than 48,000 sawmills in the United States, and their output of waste in the form of sawdust, shavings, slabs, and other wood refuse is estimated at 36 million cords, per year. This is equal to over 4 1/2 billion cubic feet of waste, which is the capacity of a bin one-half mile high with a base covering a forty acre lot. Or, considering each cord to contain eighty cubic feet of solid wood with all the cracks and air spaces taken out, these 36 million cords would make a block of wood more than a quarter of a mile on each edge.

Perhaps one-half of this so-called waste product is not strictly speaking waste, but serves a useful purpose as fuel under the boilers. Much of the remaining 18 million cords not only serves no useful purpose, but in most cases is a source of inconvenience and danger, and costs the mill time and money.

Parchment manuscripts nearly 500 years old, from which the ink has faded from view, have been read by a Berlin scientist who photographed with ultra violet rays.

GERMANS CLAIM LOSS TO NAVY WAS ONLY ELEVEN UNITS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Berlin, via London, June 8.—An official statement issued today gives the German high sea forces during the battle off Jutland and up to the present time as one battleship, four light cruisers, and five torpedo boats.

NORTH NEWARK PEOPLE CHANGE SOCIETY'S NAME.

At a meeting of the North Newark Progressive Brotherhood held last night, the members voted to change the name of the organization and voted to call it "The North Newark Improvement Association." It was also voted to admit women to the membership. The first meeting in July will be made a house meeting and a speaker will be secured to talk on "Community Interests." Three minute talks were given on the "Y" campaign, presidential possibilities, preparedness and the European war.

HAVE UNTIL MIDNIGHT TO FILE PAPERS

According to the ruling of the secretary of state, head of the election machinery of Ohio, the time for filing nomination papers ends tonight at midnight instead of last night as was generally supposed by various deputy election boards over the state. The secretary ruled that 60 days must expire between the time of filing the petitions and that of Aug. 8, the date of the primaries. Therefore that would bring the date of filing up until and including today.

PROGRESSIVES DECLARE FOR BIGGER NAVY

Chicago, June 8.—Ringing declarations of Americanism and for preparedness, military, spiritual, economic and industrial, are keystones of the progressive national platform completed today in co-operation with the Republican convention platform leaders hoped to present their document to the convention today or tomorrow at the latest.

The "Americanism" plank, minus direct references to hyphenism, declared in vigorous terms for upholding American rights on land and sea, guarding "the honor and independence of our nation and maintenance of the integrity of international law."

The platform also declares that the supreme duty of civilization is to make peace permanent after the war after which this nation should be prepared in every sphere. Regarding military preparedness, the platform declares for "a navy revered to at least second rank in battle efficiency," a standing army of 250,000 men and "a system of universal military training—a citizen soldiery—controlled by the national government."

Regarding Mexico, the platform asserts that "every resource of the government should be forthwith used to end these conditions."

Other platform declarations are for woman suffrage, regulation of industry and "just distribution of its returns," conservation, re-establishment of the American merchant marine, national highways development, a permanent tariff commission and a protective tariff.

The American Flag

On June 14, 1777, the American congress, in session in Philadelphia, established a national flag by the following resolution:

"Resolved: That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white on a blue field, representing a new constellation."

FLAG DAY

President Wilson has proclaimed June 14th as Flag Day and has asked the citizens of the United States to observe it.

All are urged to join in this celebration by displaying the flag in our homes, our places of business and our public buildings."

STAUNCH HONESTY WAS MADE ITS CORNERSTONE

Beginning Saturday and continuing for two weeks, we celebrate the passing of our seventh year in business. Since that beginning, seven years ago, this institution has grown every year.

It has been a steady growth—not rapid, but sure. The foundation stones were hewn from the solid rocks of honest dealing, honest merchandising. As the super-structure has risen year by year, there has been ever present the determination that each added tone should contain those same sterling qualities.

The Seventh Anniversary Celebration shall be characterized, as the former ones have been, by the featuring of unusual values in quality merchandise which emphasize the season. Nor will the spirit of the occasion be one of commercialism alone. We hope to greet all of our old friends as well as the new ones, and we have reason to believe that many of them will wish us "many happy returns of the day."

SUFFRAGE PLANK IS REJECTED BY SUBCOMMITTEE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, June 8.—A proposed plank in the Republican platform declaring for woman suffrage has been rejected by the subcommittee on resolutions by a vote of 5 to 4. The fight will be carried before the full committee today.

Those voting in favor of the plank were Senators Borah, Sutherland and Fall and Representative Madden of Illinois. Those voting against it were Senators Wadsworth and Lodge, Charles Hopkins Clark of Hartford, Conn., former Representative Howland of Ohio, and Senator Oliver of Pennsylvania.

If the Republican convention should concur in the attitude of the subcommittee the rejection, in the opinion of delegates, would form a direct answer to the plan of the new women's party organized last Monday by the Congressional Union for Women's Suffrage to swing the woman vote of twelve states, with 91 electoral votes, against the Republicans.

The same threat, however, applies to any other party and rejection of a similar plank by the Democrats, political leaders pointed out would nullify the suffrage attack as between the two old parties. The Progressives all along have stood for equal suffrage.

Miss Maud Younger of California and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont of New York, leaders of the Congressional Union in addresses at the woman's party convention, referred to the weapon in the hands of the women of twelve suffrage states, where it was claimed three million women are eligible to vote as the final weapon in the hands of the women to gain the ballot for their sisters in the so-called "slave states."

The woman's party stands squarely behind the Susan B. Anthony amendment.

The National American Equal Suffrage Association at a meeting which began here last Tuesday criticized the woman's party as a menace to equal suffrage and offered a plank of their own, calling for support of the movement but not mentioning any specific legislative measure.

third, amount of subscription." To show their loyalty to the division chairman, every man in Division A arose to his feet and gave a rousing cheer for their leader. This was no honor done than the men of Chairmen Kreig's division were on their feet and accepted the challenge. Hardly before this affair had ceased, Division Chairman W. C. Hopkins was on his feet and in the name of the workers issued a defy to the banner division for the evening on the same conditions as did Chairman Tullis. His challenge was immediately accepted by Chairman Hazlett, and two battle royals will be on today. Much speculation is engaged in as to who will win.

Attorney Stasel Speaks.
Mr. A. A. Stasel, a member of the campaign executive committee gave the workers food for thought in a ten minute speech last night. Among other things, Mr. Stasel said: "Our schools, our courts, our streets, and other public enterprises are kept up by our taxes, but gentlemen, if we had nothing else in our cities except the things for which our taxes pay, we would have a mighty poor town. Our churches, our lodges, our Y. W. C. A., our hospital, and last, but not least, our Y. M. C. A. These institutions help to make a town while they are not charities, they are community necessities, and it is an obligation upon the citizens of a community to contribute to these organizations just the same as it is an obligation to pay taxes for public projects. Workers, when you go out to solicit, don't beg; so as if your prospect owed an obligation to the community which you are giving him an opportunity to pay. Believe in your project. You do not need to apologize for the Y. M. C. A. With the one hundred men who are before me equipped with confidence, with faith and determination, the project will win. Go after it; keep after it; do not quit until success is sure."

State Secretary A. H. Lichty was the next speaker and gave numerous instances where campaigns of this character had been won. He congratulated the men on the splendid start and prophesied that the campaign would win, and that everyone would be proud of his efforts.

E. A. Stall, of Philadelphia, who is co-operating with Mr. Hockenbury in campaigns was in Newark last evening. He expressed his confidence that the proposition would be a great success. Your men may have anything in the city of Newark, if you want it bad enough, and are willing to pay the price in sacrifice and work.

The Other Man's Boy.
All in all the workers in the campaign have reported splendid receptions by the citizens of Newark. A few cases, however, have been disappointing and as they were in the minority, they do not discourage the public spirited men who are working in this effort. One prominent citizen explained that he would not contribute to the cause because his boys are not quite old enough to enjoy the Association but in a few years, as soon as they are able to take the advantage of the swims, gymnasium and reading room and other privileges of the Association he would be glad to contribute. It will be a sad day for Newark when parents think only of their own sons and pay scant attention to the sons and daughters of their neighbors. In our modern city life we are interdependent one upon another. Most men in modern city life today can not afford not to take into account his neighbor and his neighbor's family.

Pledge vs. Cash.
Campaign Manager Hockenbury, was asked last evening if the workers should accept cash. In answer to the question he said, "Of course if a person insists upon giving you the cash do not refuse to take it, but we would prefer a $100 pledge rather than cash for $10 or $25. If this campaign wins, as it must, then we must have a large number of large subscriptions, $100 and over." General Chairman J. A. Mitchell said last evening: "I am much encouraged, I believe the campaign will be a success. I have confidence in the men and women of Newark. I want to urge that every worker do his best today so that we may have the largest possible kind of a report. It is team work that counts. It is not fair for team workers to let the captain do it all. Every man something, every day, is the only thing that will win."

Will Announce Large Gifts.
At a meeting of the executive committee held last evening it was unanimously voted that all subscriptions of $100 and over would be published in the local papers, giving the name of the donor and the amount in all cases except where the contributor had expressed their wish that the name should not be used. The executive committee is anxious that no individual shall be embarrassed, but the list of the names of $100 contributions and over will be made public, if no objections are heard.

Meeting Tonight.
The regular report meeting will be held tonight at 6:15 o'clock. Adjournment at 7:30 sharp.

The Perfect Corn Flakes

New Post Toasties are not only inexpensive but they bear a new deliciousness, produced by a new process of cooking—the first to produce corn flakes with the self-developed true corn flavor.

So fine is this flavor that New Post Toasties are wondrous good eaten dry. Unlike common corn flakes, they do not require cream and sugar to make them palatable. Try some that way—you'll appreciate the point, though they're even better when served with cream or good milk.

These New Post Toasties don't mush down in cream, and they are not "chaffy" in the package, like common flakes. They're new in form, new in flavor, and new in appearance. Note the tiny bubbles on each flake—an identifying feature.

Put up in wax-sealed packages, New Post Toasties retain their oven-crispness and flavor until served at your table.

Have your grocer deliver a package for tomorrow's breakfast.
